IT'S WRESTLING GONE INSANE.

When the most outrageous wrestlers in history hit the mats in Saturday Night Slam Masters, what happens is not to be believed.

It's a one-to-four player wrestling insane asylum, where the only rules are - there are no rules.

Every one of the muscle-baund maniacs enters the ring ready to execute (and we mean execute) the kind of head-snapping, bone-crushing, moves that will make your body a permanent port of the mat in seconds.

El Stingray executes his flying headbutt knocking Haggar flat on his back.

So you better be ready with some back-breaking, spine-popping moves of your own. Ask your opponent to step outside the ring for "no-holds-barred" action. Pick up a table and smash it over his head until birds start to fly.

If you have more than a few screws loose, go single in the one-on-one tournament. Or, enter the Special Team Battle Royale where two teams of two slam until they're victorious.

No wrestling game can match this one.

Profile: ANDY KUBERT

Artist Andy Kubert describes his work on the X-MEN as "the best job I ever had!" Here, Andy tells how he got the job, as well as what it's like to be part of a comic book drawing dynasty that includes his brother, Adam, and his father, Joe!

Where and when were you born?

I was born in Boonton, NJ, on February 27, 1962.

How did you break into comics?
I started off as a letterer — my dad taught me how to do that. I got into the drawing part from attending my dad's school (the Joe Kubert School of Comic Art in Dover, NJ). Lettering got me into Marvel — I lettered the VOID INDIGO graphic novel, and the VOID INDIGO series, which lasted two issues!

How long did you attend the school?

Three years.

Did you do your homework every night?

I had no choice! (laughter.)

Did your brother, Adam, go to school with you?

Yeah, we went at the same time.

Which one of you was the better student?

I was, of course!

How do you and Adam get along?

We get along good. Our studios are right next door to each other, and we're always going back and forth.

Did you always want to work in comics?

I had no idea what I wanted to do! I didn't start drawing until I was 20 years old! Originally I was just going to go to my dad's school for a year. I figured I would get a job working for the school, not as a teacher, but maybe in the administrative department. I never thought I would draw for the school!

When did you graduate?

I finished school in '84. I began lettering while I was still in school. My dad was editing Sgt. Rock at the time, and he would give work to his second and third year students.

What was your first art job for Marvel?

I did a backup in SAVAGE SWORD OF CONAN. Then I did a whole issue of SAVAGE SWORD. Then I went and did some DC stuff — I think it was Warlord. I used to remember the order I did stuff in — now it all blends together!

How did you get assigned to the X-MEN?

Jim Lee decided to quit. Bob Harras called me. It took me half a second to decide!

Who are your favorite members of the team?

Gambit and Colossus.

Had you always been an X-MEN fan?

No. My dad used to bring home comics when I was a kid, but they were just DC's. I never knew Marvel existed! It wasn't until I was going to my dad's school that I discovered the X-Men. I started collecting Marc Silvestri's issues — I'm a big fan of his work.

Do you have a mutant power?

Yeah, but you wouldn't want to print what it is!

Did you ever have a crush on any of the girls from the Brady Bunch?

Yeah — Alice the maid!

filthy and not for children nor is it for adults - decent or otherwise. Pornography has been proven to affect the mind. Our son will never buy such a stinking magazine. Playboy is not as obscene.

Most sincerely,

Quinn French

Dear Sirs:

My 12 year old son watches Barbie and Bitchhead on T.V. I don't particularly care for the program that shallat laugh of one of them particularly annoys me.

Charles, my son, hid your magazine under the cushion of the couch.

I found two B's were dressed in 2 piece women's clothes suggesting homosexuality and then some stupid picture of a woman's shape with words on that caption saying They were the three dearest words in the English language!

Your magazine is
